

PROMETHEUS PLACES OVER THE YEARS

Initially under the auspices of the American Society of Association Executives (ASAE)'s Executive Management Section (EMS) Council, retreat locations are selected that incorporate the natural beauty of their surroundings and are typically in resort locations to enhance reflection and rejuvenation. Participants are urged to arrive early to enjoy the facilities before the retreat and to stay over the night the formal session ends to maximize the Prometheus experience with their colleagues.

May 2000: Rocky Gap Lodge and Golf Resort, Cumberland, MD

May 2001: Lake Geneva Resort, Lake Geneva, Wisconsin

May 2002: Coolfont Resort in Berkeley Springs, West Virginia

May 2003: Samoset Resort in Rockport, Maine

November 2003: L'Auberge de Sedona in Sedona, Arizona

May 2004: Chateau Elan in Braselton, Georgia

May 2005: Stein Erickson Lodge in Park City, UT

October 2006: Ballantyne Resort in Charlotte, NC

In 2006, ASAE & The Center for Association Leadership decided not to continue organizing Prometheus Retreats because the number of participants (maximum of 32) was too few for the association. 'Prometheans' decided to organize and run the retreats themselves, with the endorsement (and CAE credits) of ASAE.

July 2007: Chaired by Richard Lewis (Forest Resources Association), at Keystone in Keystone, CO)

May 2008: Chaired by Richard Lewis, Coeur d'Alene Resort in Coeur d'Alene, ID

May 2009: Chaired by Mark Anderson (American Society for the Surgery of the Hand) at the Ocean Edge Resort in Cape Cod, MA

May 2010: Co-chaired by Ken Reid (American Water Resources Association) and Donna Childs (Donna Childs Consultants) at Leow's Ventana Canyon Resort in Tucson, AZ

May 2011: Co-chaired Donna Childs (Donna Childs Consultants) and Ladd Smith (Research Institute for Fragrance Materials, Inc.) at Keystone Lodge in Keystone, CO

May 2012: Co-Chaired by Ladd Smith (Research Institute for Fragrance Materials, Inc.) and Eileen Murray (American Academy of Dermatology ) High Peaks Resort in Lake Placid, NY